

If you would spend your time on your purpose in the presence of Jesus and you will find joy, peace, and true success! Your purpose is your pain plus your gift. Everyone has three gifts that help give you clarity of purpose.

- 1. Your Motivational Gift—What motivates you? Your motivational gift is your internal drive that influences how you see and respond to situations in life. Your Motivation for serving others. Romans 12:6-8 describes motivational gifts, which are prophecy, serving, teaching, exhortation, giving, leadership, and mercy. If you have the gift of mercy—when a problem or situation comes, you will naturally seek to comfort and help people who are hurting—if you have the gift of leadership you will seek to organize and guide people.
- 2. Your Manifestation Gift—the ability to manifest a supernatural outcome. Your ability to supernaturally empower yourself and others. 1 Corinthians 12:7-11 describes the manifestation gifts, which include wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, miracles, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation of tongues.
- 3. Your Equipping Gift—that equips you to do what you are called to do and help others do. What comes naturally to you? Ephesians 4:11-13 describes the equipping gift, which include apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers. Your equipping gift equips you to do and help others do as you grow into Christlikeness to fulfill God-given purpose.

These three gifts are what you do with your heart and soul—this is your spiritual self which is about your own personal testimony—it is the spiritual you—you must claim it and exercise it! Please take time to do this gift test.
